The Lobby Shop: Replacing the Clean Power Plan featuring Jeff Holmstead

October 13, 2017

By: Joshua C. Zive, Jeffrey R. Holmstead and Liam P. Donovan

Josh and Liam discuss the latest developments at the EPA regarding the Obama Administration's Clean Power Plan (CPP) with our Bracewell colleague Jeff Holmstead, former assistant administrator of the EPA for Air and Radiation and current head of Bracewell's Environmental Strategies Group. Jeff lends his expertise to help explain the background and politics of the CPP, this week's draft Advanced Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (ANPR) for replacing the CPP, and what that means at this stage.
