

Barbara Jones Named to 2022 City & State New York Law Power 100 List

Awards & Rankings

March 08, 2022 | 1 minute read | New York

NEW YORK – Bracewell's Barbara S. Jones has been named to City & State New York's Law Power 100 List for 2022. They are among a group of honorees, which includes district attorneys, federal prosecutors, white-collar defense attorneys, public interest lawyers, law school deans and bar association leaders, recognized as the most influential leaders in the New York legal community.

Jones is a retired federal judge in the Southern District of New York and a partner in Bracewell's New York office, where she provides advice and leadership on internal investigations, compliance programs, monitorships, arbitrations and mediations. Her recent engagements include an appointment to serve as a special master in the government's investigation of Rudolph Giuliani's business dealings in Ukraine.

Related People

Barbara S. Jones

Partner

NEW YORK

+1.212.508.6105

barbara.jones@bracewell.com

Related Practices

Litigation