Bracewell Policy Resolution Group Senior Principal Frank Maisano discussed with Financial Times how President Joe Biden has been naming climate-action advocates to prominent roles in his administration's energy department instead of former industry lobbyists.

"You have a broad, diverse array of people with experiences that are consistent with the coalition of Democrats that elected Joe Biden," said Maisano. "The one major consistent theme you see, though, is all have a commitment to advancing an agenda that can address climate change as quickly as possible."
