

Bonds & Loans, Latin America & Caribbean Conference

Event

October 05, 2022 | 1 minute read

Energy Partner Fernando J. Rodriguez Marin will speak on “Renewables and the decarbonisation of economies: Evaluating the push for renewables in accelerating the energy transition” at the Bonds & Loans, Latin America & Caribbean Conference on November 30, 2022. This talk will address questions such as how are renewable projects across Latin America in countries like Colombia, Chile and Brazil being funded? Where is liquidity still needed and how can other countries follow suit? What structures are being favoured by issuers and lenders? And what impact could hydrogen have on the project sector in the next 3-5 years? For more information, please click here.
