

Bracewell Represents Riverstone Credit Partners on Sale of UK Shipyard Assets

News Release

January 30, 2025 | 1 minute read

HOUSTON/LONDON – Bracewell LLP represented Riverstone Credit, an energy-focused private credit fund, on the sale of the business and assets of Harland & Wolff, including its shipyards in England, Scotland and Northern Ireland, via a pre-pack administration to Harland & Wolff's largest customer, Navantia UK. More than 1,000 jobs were secured as a result of this sale.

Bracewell continues to represent Riverstone Credit, and its adviser Breakwall Capital, in its capacity as secured creditor to the Harland & Wolff group.

Bracewell lawyers involved in the transaction include:

Partners: Kate Day, Jason Fox and François Feuillat

Associates: Alan Stewart, Jessica Hastings, Sameer Ahuja and Rebecca Williamson

Related People

Kate H. Day

Partner

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.1581

kate.day@bracewell.com

Jason Fox

Managing Partner – London

LONDON

+44.(0).207.448.4206

jason.fox@bracewell.com

François Feuillat

Partner

LONDON

+44.(0).207.448.4226

francois.feuellat@bracewell.com

Alan R. Stewart

Associate

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.1481

alan.stewart@bracewell.com

Jessica Hastings

Senior Associate

LONDON

+44.(0).207.448.4215

jessica.hastings@bracewell.com

Sameer Ahuja

Associate

LONDON

+44.(0).207.448.4280

sameer.ahuja@bracewell.com

Related Industries

Finance

Related Practices

Finance

Corporate & Securities

Mergers & Acquisitions