

Bracewell Represents Texas Citizens Bancorp, Inc. in Merger With Business First Bancshares, Inc.

News Release

October 21, 2021 | 1 minute read | Dallas | Houston | Washington, DC

HOUSTON – Bracewell LLP is advising Texas Citizens Bancorp, Inc., the holding company of Texas Citizens Bank, N.A., in its merger with Business First Bancshares, Inc. (Nasdaq: BFST), the holding company of b1BANK. Pursuant to the definitive agreement, Texas Citizens and Texas Citizens Bank will merge with and into Business First and b1BANK, respectively, in an all-stock transaction. This combination will provide b1BANK a presence in Houston.

The transaction is expected to close in the first quarter of 2022, subject to satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including receipt of regulatory approvals and Texas Citizens shareholder approval.

For more information, please click here.

Bracewell lawyers involved in the transaction included:

Partners: Will Anderson and Matthew B. Grunert

Counsel: Ian R. Brown

Associates: Kate Barrington McGregor, Shannon L. Baldwin and Caroline M. Melo

Related People

William S. Anderson

Partner

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.1122

will.anderson@bracewell.com

Matthew B. Grunert

Partner

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.1148

matt.grunert@bracewell.com

Ian R. Brown

Senior Counsel

DALLAS

+1.214.758.1667

ian.brown@bracewell.com

Kate Barrington McGregor

Partner

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.1405

kate.mcgregor@bracewell.com

Shannon Baldwin

Associate

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.1308

shannon.baldwin@bracewell.com

Caroline Melo Chapman

Associate

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.1391

caroline.chapman@bracewell.com

Related Industries

Finance

Related Practices

Corporate & Securities

Mergers & Acquisitions