

Bracewell's Constance Rhebergen, Trademark Practice Recognized in 2024 WTR 1000

Awards & Rankings

February 09, 2024 | 1 minute read | Houston

HOUSTON – Bracewell LLP partner Constance Gall Rhebergen and the firm's Texas trademark practice are recognized in World Trademark Review's 2024 WTR 1000 directory, which identifies the leading professionals and firms that are deemed outstanding at obtaining, protecting, managing and enforcing trademarks.

"Offering the full gamut of IP services, the team in Texas has developed a niche in providing counsel for real estate clients' portfolios," notes WTR 1000.

Rhebergen – chair of Bracewell's technology and intellectual property section – counsels numerous clients with respect to intellectual property strategies, including developing strategies and managing intellectual asset portfolios. She also analyzes intellectual property clearances for new products, processes or company launches.

Published by Law Business Research, WTR 1000 focuses exclusively on trademark practices and identifies the top trademark firms in key jurisdictions around the globe.

Related People

Constance Gall Rhebergen

Partner

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.3306

constance.rhebergen@bracewell.com

Related Industries

Energy

Technology

Related Practices

Intellectual Property

Trademark & Copyrights