

Demystifying AI

Event

February 03, 2025 | 1 minute read

Artificial intelligence (AI) is transforming business operations, legal services, and court functions, driving efficiency and growth. However, its use presents ethical and legal challenges. Join Jonathon K. Hance and Chief Judge Jennifer Walker Elrod of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit as they explore AI's potential and discuss best practices for its ethical application.
