

House Ways & Means Bill Would Kill, Scale Back Many Clean Energy Credits

Media Mentions

May 13, 2025 | Inside EPA | 1 minute read | Washington, DC

Republicans' draft budget "reconciliation" legislation released by the House Ways & Means Committee would make major changes to the Inflation Reduction Act's suite of clean energy tax credits. Observers expect that the panel's draft measure is likely to be an opening salvo with the potential for significant changes on Capitol Hill.

"This is the first serve in a long effort. It will change," Bracewell's Frank Maisano told Inside EPA.

Related People

Frank V. Maisano
Senior Principal
WASHINGTON, DC
+1.202.828.5864
frank.maisano@bracewell.com

Related Industries

Energy

Related Practices

Renewable Energy
Government Relations