

Implementing the Inflation Reduction Act's Clean Hydrogen Tax Credit

Event

April 12, 2024 | 1 minute read

Timothy J. Urban will moderate a panel titled “Implementing the Inflation Reduction Act’s Clean Hydrogen Tax Credit” at an informal lunch briefing hosted by The Roosevelt Caucus Foundation and the Roosevelt Conservation Caucus. The briefing will involve a panel discussion examining the proposed rule with the context of the Administration’s emissions reduction and clean energy goals. It will provide insights from stakeholders involved in the hydrogen value chain.
