SAN ANTONIO – Jane Macon, a partner in Bracewell LLP's San Antonio office, was named by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) as a 2025 Legends & Legacy Community Award winner at the Final Four in San Antonio. The award honors local community builders who commit their time, resources and influence to improve and invest in their local communities.

Macon was one of five honorees recognized at halftime of Florida's 65-63 win over Houston at the Alamodome on April 7.

With over 50 years of service, Macon has helped shape the San Antonio community through her philanthropic efforts, including her support of parks, museums and programs for children.
