

Martin Gusy Named to ICC Disability Inclusion in International Arbitration Task Force

News Release

January 07, 2022 | 1 minute read | New York

NEW YORK – Bracewell LLP's Martin Gusy has been named to the International Chamber of Commerce's (ICC) Disability Inclusion in International Arbitration Task Force, formed under the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR. The newly created task force will study and analyze the ways in which ICC can meet the needs of those in the international arbitration community who may need accommodations or changes for the way they work.

ICC is the institutional representative of more than 45 million companies in over 100 countries. Through a unique mix of advocacy, solutions and standard setting, ICC promotes international trade, responsible business conduct and a global approach to regulation, in addition to providing market-leading dispute resolution services. Its members include many of the world's leading companies, SMEs, business associations and local chambers of commerce.
