Bracewell's Tim Urban addressed the future of the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA) during the PRG Pulse 2024 Post-Election Webinar, where he predicted that industry groups and companies would have to lobby hard on Capitol Hill to keep IRA provisions in place.

"[Donald] Trump will be coming in with a two-fisted view of what he wants to do," Inside Climate News quoted Urban from the webinar.

"I'm still optimistic that much if not all of the IRA may be salvageable, but I think there's a lot of work to be done," added Urban.
