Andrew Bueso represents both lenders and borrowers in a variety of traditional and creative secured and unsecured credit transactions. He advises clients in connection with leveraged and investment grade credit facilities, including reserve-based loans, acquisition financings, holdco facilities, multi-currency facilities, and cross-border facilities, as well as distressed credits in restructuring and workout situations. While Andrew's experience in the commercial lending space spans a variety of industries, a large portion of his practice consists of representing renewable and traditional energy companies, as well as large commercial banks, both domestic and international, in connection with credit facilities to energy infrastructure companies, exploration and production companies, midstream companies, oilfield services companies, and commodity trading and storage companies.

Andrew has advised clients involved in distressed credits proceeding through bankruptcy, and he has worked on a number of debtor-in-possession credit facilities and exit credit facilities.

Experience

Portfolio company of EnCap Investments L.P.

- as borrower in a $250 million revolving reserved-based loan secured by substantially all assets of the borrower and its subsidiaries, including certain Texas oil and gas properties

Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank

- refinancing of approximately $2.6 billion of letter of credit and term loan facilities in favor of McDermott International, Ltd, including $320 million dropdown financing of CB&I STS Delaware LLC. The refinancing was implemented through a cross-border restructuring process which compromised approximately $1 billion of unsecured litigation claims. This represents only the second time a dual-track UK RP/Dutch WHOA has been used as a restructuring strategy. Notable accolades for this work include winner of the IFLR Europe Awards 2025 Restructuring Deal of the Year and the American Bankruptcy Institute's International Matter of the Year Award.

Drilling Tools International, Inc.
