

Barbara S. Jones

Partner

barbara.jones@bracewell.com

NEW YORK

+1.212.508.6105

Barbara S. Jones, former judge in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, focuses her practice on corporate monitorships, compliance issues, internal investigations and arbitrations and mediations.

During her 16-year term in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, Judge Jones presided over a diverse range of cases, including accounting and securities fraud, antitrust, fraud and corruption involving city contracts and federal loan programs, labor racketeering and terrorism. In May 2010, Judge Jones was appointed by the Chief Justice of the United States to serve on the seven-member Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation; she served on the panel until October 2012.

Prior to her U.S. District Judge nomination in 1995 by President Bill Clinton, she served as Chief Assistant to Robert M. Morgenthau, then-District Attorney of New York County. Previously, she was an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Southern District of New York, where she served as the chief of the Organized Crime Strike Force Unit. Judge Jones has served as an adjunct assistant professor at Fordham Law School and New York University School of Law. Judge Jones also chaired the Response Systems to Adult Sexual Assault Crimes Panel, created by Congress in the National Defense Authorization Act for 2013, aimed at assessing the investigation, prosecution, and adjudication of sexual assaults in the military. The panel issued a report to Congress in June 2014 with 132 recommendations to the Department of Defense.

Practices

Government Enforcement & Investigations
Internal Investigations
Monitorships
Litigation

Experience

Southern District of New York

- appointed as a Special Master by SDNY Judge Kimba Wood to manage the privilege review of documents seized from Donald Trump's lawyer Michael Cohen. Judge Jones led a small team of Bracewell partners that quickly and securely reviewed physical documents inside a Sensitive Compartmented Information Facility ("SCIF") to ensure necessary security of information.
- appointed as the Independent Review Officer for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters Union (IBT). In her role as Independent Review Officer, Judge Jones acts as an independent monitor over the IBT, the largest union in the world of 1.5 million members, and exercises disciplinary authority over the IBT relating to internal corruption charges, disciplinary decisions and reviews trusteeships imposed by the IBT over local unions, in addition to other investigative responsibilities.
- appointed as Lead Master in the case of US Bank v. UBS Real Estate Securities, Inc. to oversee the review of thousands of loan files to determine whether there exist breaches by UBS of certain obligations related to the quality of the loans.

Federal Communication Commission

- appointed as independent compliance officer to review and evaluate Charter Communication's compliance with the conditions the FCC placed on it in connection with the acquisition of Time Warner Cable, Inc. and Bright House Networks

Signet Jewelers

- engaged by the Board of Signet, the world's largest retailer of diamond jewelry with more than 3300 stores worldwide, to conduct a review of its compliance policies and practices relating to discrimination, harassment and retaliation and to identify areas for improvement

New York Police Department

- appointed by the New York City Police Commissioner to be part of a panel that is conducting a full-scale review of the New York City Police Department's discipline policies

University of Michigan

- appointed as the Independent External Reviewer at the University of Michigan and tasked with deciding student disciplinary actions under the University's Policy and Procedures on Student Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct. In this role, she reviews investigation files including statements and other evidence to determine if the complaint was properly investigated and if the investigator's findings comport with the evidence. She may alter the discipline if she determines that the sanction is clearly inappropriate or disproportionate.

New York City District Council of Carpenters

- monitorship before the Judge Victor Marrero, United States district judge for the Southern District of New York. In her role representing the monitored entity, Judge Jones worked with the court-appointed monitor and with the assigned Assistant U.S. Attorneys to ensure the conditions set forth in the court's order were met.

New York City Department of Investigation (DOI) and the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA)

- appointment to monitor a mid-sized construction company subject to a Deferred Prosecution Agreement with the New York County District Attorney's Office involving violations of the MWBE laws. In this role, Judge Jones reviewed the company's compliance code, conducted compliance training and set up a hotline for internal reporting of corruption. She also reviewed and approved business practices and procedures to ensure the integrity of all contracts, to include review of the books and records to identify any potential payroll fraud and abuses.*

U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York

- appointment as an examiner to investigate allegations that the court-appointed Patient Care Ombudsman for debtor Daytop Village mischaracterized conditions of the debtor's operations in his reports and attempted to improperly influence the debtor in connection with fee applications*

New York City Business Integrity Commission (BIC)

- appointed by the BIC to audit a large waste hauling firm to prevent organized crime involvement and to ensure compliance with the New York State Minority MWBE laws. The monitorship included analysis of thousands of documents and emails, numerous interviews, and forensic accounting reviews of the company.*

Board of Trustees of the Queens Borough Public Library

- conducted an internal investigation into a whistleblower complaint related to the Board of Trustees of the Queens Borough Public Library*

National Football League (NFL)

- selected by the NFL to arbitrate the appeal over the discipline given to Baltimore Ravens running back Ray Rice, who faced accusations of domestic violence*

BRACEWELL

City University of New York (CUNY)

- conducted investigations into allegations of antisemitism on CUNY campuses for the chancellor of CUNY together with Partner Paul Shechtman

 Work completed prior to Bracewell*

Credentials

Education

- Temple University Beasley School of Law, J.D., 1973
- Mount Saint Mary's College, B.A., 1968, cum laude

Bar Admissions

- New York

Affiliations

- American Bar Association, Member of Standards Committee for Corporate Monitorships
- Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Past Member of the Executive and Judiciary Committees
- American College of Trial Lawyers, Fellow
- William C. Conner Intellectual Property McInerney American Inn of Court, Past President
- New York County Lawyers Association, Past Chair of the Criminal Justice Council

Recognition

Chambers USA

- New York Litigation: White Collar Crime & Government Investigations, 2022 – 2024

The Legal 500 United States

- Dispute Resolution – Corporate Investigations and White-Collar Criminal Defense, 2017 – 2020, 2023 – 2024

City & State New York

- Law Power 100 List, 2022

BRACEWELL

Federal Bar Council

- Emory Buckner Award for Outstanding Public Service, 2016

BL Rankings

- Best Lawyers, Administrative/Regulatory Law, 2015 – 2025
- Best Lawyers, Criminal Defense: White-Collar, 2019 – 2025
- Best Lawyers, New York Lawyer of the Year, Administrative/Regulatory Law, 2019, 2023

ALM Media Properties, LLC

- New York Law Journal, New York Trailblazers, 2019
- National Law Journal, Outstanding Women Lawyers, 2015

Thomson Reuters

- New York Metro Super Lawyers, 2016 – 2022

Temple University Beasley School of Law

- Temple Law Quarterly, Editor

Publications & Speeches

- “Valuing a Business,” Commercial Litigation in New York State Courts, 2020 edition.