

Henry Day

Associate

henry.day@bracewell.com

LONDON

+44 (0) 20 7448 4264

Henry Day helps clients resolve disputes in the finance, infrastructure, energy and construction sectors. He has represented clients on a range of contentious and investigations matters including LCIA and ICC arbitrations and litigation in the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC).

Prior to joining Bracewell, Henry was a trainee in the London office of a large international law firm.

Industries

Energy

Finance

Infrastructure

Practices

International Arbitration

Litigation

Experience

International infrastructure company

- ICC arbitration in respect of disputes concerning the acquisition of interests in two Brazilian solar projects

Nigerian oil & gas company

- LCIA arbitration concerning contested sale and purchase obligations relating to crude offtake

Energy company

- internal investigation into cost-sharing arrangements between joint venture parties

Commercial arbitration

- acted for an upstream oil and gas company in a dispute with an energy supermajor on contractual issues arising under a crude offtake agreement

Energy company

- acted for an international energy company conducting an internal investigation into cost-sharing arrangements between joint venture parties

Credentials

Education

- BPP University Law School, L.P.C., 2022
- University of Cambridge, England, B.A., Tripos, Languages & Law, 2021

Bar Admissions

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Languages

- German — Basic
- Portuguese — Basic
- Spanish — Intermediate

Resources

Recent UK Court Rulings on Scope 3 Emissions: Have the Floodgates to Climate Change Litigation Fully Opened?

Blog Post

Digging for Trouble: The Double-Edged Sword of Decisions to Report Misconduct

Update

Forced Enforcement? The Fine Line in the CFTC's Approach to Market Manipulation

What Did I Miss? Key UK Sanctions Updates From Q3-4 2024

Article

New Offense Expands Liability for Corporate Enviro Fraud

Article

Publications & Speeches

- "New Offense Expands Liability for Corporate Enviro Fraud," Law360, November 20, 2024.