

Jacob R. Brandes

Associate

jacob.brandes@bracewell.com

WASHINGTON, DC

+1.202.828.5813

Jacob Brandes advises clients on regulatory, litigation, enforcement and policy matters across the energy industry.

During law school, Jacob completed legal internships with the Harpeth Conservancy and the Nolan Center for Justice.

Industries

Energy

Practices

Energy Regulatory

Credentials

Education

- Vanderbilt University Law School, J.D., 2024
- Clark University, B.A., 2021, cum laude

Bar Admissions

- District of Columbia

Vanderbilt University Law School

- Thomas R. McCoy Scholarship Award, 2023 – 24
- Law and Business Society, Member

Harpeth Conservancy

- Legal Intern

Nolan Center for Justice

- Legal Intern

Resources

Federal Register Notice on November 26, 2024, Establishes Date for Compliance Filings for FERC Elimination of Generator Compensation for Standard Reactive Power Service

Blog Post

Composition of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Under the New Administration

Blog Post

The CFTC's New Advisory on Self-Reporting, Cooperation and Remediation

Blog Post

Another Big Week for NEPA: New Federal Procedures and a Big Beautiful Bill Benefit

Update

Publications & Speeches

- Co-author, "Bureau of Ocean and Energy Management Releases Proposed Rule on Supplemental Financial Insurance for OCS Lease and Grant Obligations," The Journal of Federal Agency Action, Vol. 1, No. 6, 2023.