Experience

Avaya, Inc.

- local counsel to an ad hoc group of creditors in the prepackaged chapter 11 bankruptcy of Avaya and its affiliated debtors

Wells Fargo Bank, National Association

- as lender, administrative agent and collateral agent in the successfully completed exit financing for Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. and certain affiliates. The exit financing included approximately $400 million in a revolving credit facility, $100 million in a term loan and over $85 million in privately placed notes.

Cheniere

- largest gathering system counter party in the SABINE bankruptcy

Energy & Exploration Partners, LLC

- Debtors in Chapter 11 proceedings resulting in the restructuring of more than $1 billion of funded debt enabling the company to emerge from Chapter 11 with a deleveraged balance sheet and new financing to support future operations. The transaction was named by Global M&A Network as the 2017 Turnaround Atlas Awards Turnaround of the Year ($1 billion-$2 billion) Network.

Linc Energy Ltd. as Australian-based oil, gas, and coal company, and its US subsidiaries

- as debtors in the United States subsidiaries

Optim Energy, LLC

- debtor in Chapter 11 proceedings, including the successful 363 sale of the Twin Oaks Plant to a unit of Blackstone Group and the confirmation of a plan of reorganization for the debtors' other remaining power generation business

Overseas Shipholding, Group

- represented ad hoc committee of bondholders in rights offering

TMT Procurement Corporation and 20 TMT-affiliated entities

- a Taiwanese shipping group providing worldwide sea-borne transportation services employing a diversified and modern fleet of 16 vessels, in its chapter 11 proceedings

Trinity River Resources, LP

- debtors in Chapter 11 proceedings in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas

Venoco, LLC

- Debtors in Chapter 11 proceedings to restructure their capital structure by obtaining confirmation of a plan of reorganization just four months after filing for bankruptcy. The M&A Advisor recognized this transaction as the Turnaround Awards 2017 Energy Deal of the Year (over $100 million to $500 million). Due to unforeseeable operational issues, Venoco filed a second Chapter 11 proceeding in April 2017 in which brokered settlements with several holders of decommissions claims, led to a consensual Chapter 11 plan that was confirmed in May 2018. Prior to the Chapter 11 filings, the company was advised in a series of strategic transactions that were recognized as the 2015 Turnaround Awards Out-of-Court Restructuring Deal of the Way (over $500 million).
