

Shana L. Hight

Paralegal

shana.hight@bracewell.com

DALLAS

+1.214.758.1651

Shana Hight is a paralegal in the firm's public finance group supporting bond counsel focusing on municipal, school district, water district, public improvement district, county and state agency bond financing issues including the preparation of debt obligation documents and transcripts for review and approval by the Office of the Texas Attorney General. Shana assists the lawyers' various public entity clients with the planning, preparation of documents and administering bond elections in compliance with state and federal law.

Credentials

Education

- El Centro College, A.A.S.
- University of Arkansas, B.S.