

Véronique Bruel

Counsel

veronique.brue@bracewell.com

PARIS

+33 6 72 88 13 01

Véronique Bruel focuses her practice on debt finance structures for energy and infrastructure-related projects in France and French-speaking Africa, as well as asset-backed financings in relation to the aviation, shipping, rail and urban transport sectors, having more than 30 years' experience advising banks, international finance institutions, governments, sponsors as well as investment funds. Véronique has gained a broad and in-depth knowledge of IFIs' requirements, including AFD, EIB, KfW, Proparco, the World Bank group and in particular IFC.

Prior to joining Bracewell, Véronique was counsel at an international law firm in Paris.

Industries

Energy

Finance

Infrastructure

Practices

Carbon Capture Utilization and Storage

Syndicated Lending

Oil & Gas

Renewable Energy

Project Finance

---

Credentials

Education

- Université Paris-Saclay, Master's 2, Business Law
- Aix Marseille Université, DESS-DJCE, Business Law
- University of Canterbury, B.A., English Law

Bar Admissions

- Avocat au Barreau de Paris

Languages

- English
- French

Resources

Security Over EU ETS Allowances: A French Legal Perspective

Update