Staying Compliant in 2020 and Beyond - Drug Testing, Marijuana, and CBD Laws & Trends

November 7, 2019

By: Robert S. Nichols

Bracewell Partner Robert Nichols tackled the layers of drug testing laws and regulations affecting employers. Our webinar explored trends we see across the country and explain how to stay compliant no matter where your business operates. Special emphasis was given to the intersection between drug testing and the rapidly developing marijuana and CBD (Cannabidiol) industries. Through this webinar you will learn:

- How single-state and multi-state employers can keep up with the laws, regulations, and trends impacting workplace drug testing
- How the evolving legal landscapes governing marijuana and hemp impact employers and employers' ability to drug test
- Strategies to deal with shifting norms and laws governing workforce drug use and off-duty conduct
- Best practices for drafting or revising your company's drug testing policy and implementing procedures that will protect your business in 2020 and beyond
