Environmental Essentials: Permitting and Environmental Justice: What's Next?

February 14, 2023

By: Steven Cook and Whit Swift

The EPA continues to advance environmental justice policies, issuing its “Principles for Addressing Environmental Justice in Air Permitting” in December and preparing its much-anticipated guidance on addressing cumulative impacts in permitting expected later this year.

Watch Steven Cook and Whit Swift as they discuss:

- The EPA’s latest efforts on the environmental justice front
- How those efforts are impacting state permitting authorities
- Potential impacts on permitting strategy for the regulated community
