

Brooke Ringel: Blending Law and Policy to Navigate the World of International Trade

Podcast | Madam Policy

October 18, 2021 | 1 minute read

The Madam Policy Podcast · Brooke Ringel: Blending Law and Policy to Navigate the World of International Trade

Brooke Ringel has mastered the art of using law, policy and data analysis to become a powerhouse in international trade law. Brooke, a partner at Kelley Drye & Warren LLP, joined hosts Dee Martin and Yasmin Nelson on Madam Policy for a deep-dive into her work as an international trade attorney. In this episode you will hear: how Covid has impacted international trade and how Brooke is adjusting to better serve her clients; details about her journey to becoming an international trade attorney, and about her involvement with the Association of Women in International Trade (WIIT) and the WITT Trust. Brooke also shares “contrarian” advice to achieving work-life balance. This is an episode that you won’t want to miss!

Related People

E. Dee Martin

Partner

WASHINGTON, DC

+1.202.828.5818

dee.martin@bracewell.com

Related Practices

Government Relations