

COP28 in 8: Cipher Founding Executive Editor Amy Harder, Top National Climate & Energy Reporter

Podcast | Madam Policy

December 08, 2023 | 1 minute read

Kicking off Madam Policy's COP28 in 8 series is Founding Executive Editor of Cipher and top national energy and climate reporter Amy Harder. Amy joins hosts Dee Martin and Carolyn Spector from Dubai for the 28th United Nations Climate Change Conference, better known as COP28. Get the inside scoop from Amy about hot topics from methane reduction measures, the "investment gap," the role of the oil and gas industry and more in this special episode of Madam Policy! Per usual, Amy is covering it all. Tune into this fast-paced episode and come back for the other quick convos that are part of our COP28 in 8 series.

 The COP28 in 8 series is a mini episode series where we have 8 minute conversations with the women involved with COP28 in Dubai.

This was recorded on December 5th, 2023 and events may have changed since this recording.
