

COP28 in 8: Lisa Jacobson, Business Council for Sustainable Energy President and Energy Policy Powerhouse

Podcast | Madam Policy

December 11, 2023 | 1 minute read

President of the Business Council for Sustainable Energy and policy powerhouse Lisa Jacobson continues Madam Policy's COP28 in 8 series, joining us on "Gender Day"! Lisa talks with hosts Dee Martin and Kendall Mitchell while in Dubai for the 28th United Nations Climate Change Conference, or COP28. We check in with Lisa about BCSE's role as a 65-member trade association representing the energy efficiency, natural gas, and renewable energy industries on the world stage. We also hear more about BCSE's Sustainable Energy in America Factbook, the invaluable resource for government officials, stakeholders, and thought leaders. Want to hear more from this amazing woman who shapes policy every day to advance the clean energy transition? Tune in today!

 The COP28 in 8 series is a series where we have 8-minute conversations with the women involved with COP28 in Dubai.

This was recorded on December 4th 2023 and events may have changed since this recording.
