

Rhetoric in Politics and the Roots of Populism With Prof. Paul Elliott Johnson

Podcast | The Lobby Shop

March 02, 2022 | 1 minute read

---

This week, The Lobby Shop is joined by Paul Elliott Johnson, assistant professor of communications at the University of Pittsburgh. His recent book, “I The People: The Rhetoric of Conservative Populism in the United States,” details the roots of different conservative populist movements and how they have played a part in American history. Tune in for a lively discussion covering American politics, the impact of media on politics and the 2022 midterm elections.
