

US Trade Policy in the Biden Administration

Video

January 13, 2021 | 1 minute read

After four of the most volatile years in international trade in recent history, what will be the approach of the incoming Biden Administration on Trump-era tariffs, the China trade war, bilateral and multilateral trade agreements, relations with the World Trade Organization and other trade policy issues?

Bracewell and Hogan Lovells have combined forces to bring you this unique discussion that examines the opportunities and challenges on international trade that face President-elect Biden.

Moderator: Paul Nathanson, Bracewell LLP

Speakers: Josh Zive, Bracewell LLP

Kelly Ann Shaw, Hogan Lovells

Jonathan Stoel, Hogan Lovells

Ivan Zapien, Hogan Lovells

Jonathan Tsentas, Legislative Assistant to Sen. Bob Menendez (D-NJ-S01)
