Podcast | The Lobby Shop

June 29, 2023 | 1 minute read

Paul and Caitlin are joined by friend of the podcast and third-time guest, Alexander Kravtsov, a strategic communications consultant and founder of the public affairs firm Nexus Eurasia. Alexander, a Russian native now residing in Europe and the United States, gives his perspective on the 24-hour coup led by Yevgeny Prigozhin and his private military company, the Wagner Group. The team discusses Prigozhin's past, the reasons he rebelled and why it was resolved quickly, and the implications for Russia ... and Ukraine.
